DESCRIPTION/OPTIONS: $3000+ PRICE DROP! Mechanics special! Up for sale is our 2013 Ducati 1199S in the super rare Arctic White color! Only 11,380 miles since new! We have attached a picture of the repair order as quoted by Ducati, Coolant piping needs to be replaced as there is some corrosion. Valve cover gaskets are also seeping (not leaking yet) which is extremely common on these bikes, was quoted $2,800 from Ducati to fix everything, if you're mechanically inclined you can do it for less than half of that! This bike is bone stock other than a rear fender eliminator! Clean title in hand ready to be signed over to the next owner. New asking price is $13,999!
